

Port Orford, OR

Cruising along U.S. 101 as it hugs the Oregon coast, you might not even notice when you reach the tiny town of Port Orford. But travelers who do pull off the highway are rewarded: great food, great art, miles of coastal trails, and a beachside panorama that will make your jaw drop. Don't miss Battle Rock City Park: The topography lives up to its dramatic name.

STAY Settle into a cabin at WildSpring Guest Habitat, in the woods three minutes from a bluff overlooking the ocean, and watch for whales from the deck. From $198, including breakfast, wildspring.com